Use

- Adjectives describe a thing or person:
She's a good singer. He's a slow worker.
- Adverbs of manner describe an action.
They tell us how someone does something:
She sings well. He works slowly.

Form and spelling

- To form adverbs of manner, we add -ly to an adjective:
slow → slowly quick → quickly
loud → loudly polite → politely

- For adjectives that end in -y, we change -y to -i and then add -ly:
happy → happily
noisy → noisily
- These adverbs are irregular. We do not form them with -ly:
good → well fast → fast hard → hard
- Adverbs of manner come after the verb:
Mrs Smith walks slowly. Peter runs fast.
- fast and hard can be adjectives or adverbs.
Brian runs fast. Brian is a fast runner.

Use

- We use the present perfect to talk about things we did in the recent past but have a result in the present:

We've put all the bags in the car. (They are in the car now.)

Form

- We use have or has and the past participle of the verb to form the present perfect. The past participles of regular verbs are the same as the past simple forms. We add -(e)d to the infinitive:

pack → packed → packed

play → played → played

help → helped → helped

live → lived → lived

- Irregular verbs are different. They don't form the past participle with -ed:

make → made → made

buy → bought → bought

lose → lost → lost

eat → ate → eaten

go → went → gone

give → gave → given

put → put → put

read → read → read

cut → cut → cut

run → ran → run

drink → drank → drunk

begin → began → begun

2 Read the information.

- We often use the present perfect to talk about something that happened in the past, but we don't say exactly when it happened. We often use it to talk about our experiences, the things we have or have not done in our lives.
I've visited theme park.
I've been on a water ride.
- We often use ever and never with the present perfect when we talk about our experiences.
- We use ever in questions.
Have you ever ridden on a roller coaster?
- We use never in positive sentences. Be careful: never has a negative meaning, but we use it with positive verbs.
I've never been on a water ride.

~~I haven't never been on a water ride.~~
